

“Where Have all the (Good) Leaders Gone?”

A Public Lecture Presented by:

BISHOP DENNIS DRAINVILLE

“The most serious deficit Canada faces as a nation is its leadership deficit. This national challenge goes far beyond the political parties and includes the major institutions that operate within Canadian society. The heart of the problem is found in our complete rejection of making public decisions based on the concept of the 'Common Good'.” So says Canadian Anglican bishop and former member of the Ontario Legislature, The Rt.

Rev. Dennis Drainville.
